ABOUT ME

I got my start in interior design and decorating through my real estate career. Working with builders and investors since 2015, I developed a passion for all things relating to the way a home looks and feels to potential buyers.

Studying market trends to help maximize profits for my clients lead me to starting my own interior design and decorating company in 2016. Since then I've designed and decorated over 50 homes and continue to love what I do.
